SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 6.—(Columbian.)—The members of the California newspaper men are already making preparations to entertain the delegates to the convention of the International league of press clubs, which meets in this city January 14 next. At a meeting of the Press club of San Francisco last night M. H. DeYoung addressed the members on the subject of entertaining the reporters, and the club voted to raise sufficient funds hospitably to care for all visiting journalists. The necessary committees were appointed and arrangements are already under way. About 250 of the most prominent journalists in the United States and Canada are expected to attend the convention.

NO CAR FAMINE.

Premature Reports Sent Out on the Subject Denied.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 6.—(Reports sent out to the effect that the car famine had finally come, are decidedly premature so far as the Chicago lines are concerned. Inquiries at the headquarters of the various companies today resulted in the assurance that none of them are cramped for cars as yet.
